6. Private A. S. King, Company C, Seventy-first Infantry, Newport News, Va.

May Use Both Sides.

The United States Post-Office Department has issued an order to postmasters, modifying the regulations with regard to post cards.

The new order allows the use of the left half of the address side of post cards for messages, where a line is drawn vertically down the front. The right-hand half of the card can he used only for the address. This is done to allow messages to be put on post cards, the reverse side of which are entirely taken up with pictures or colors.
